

Book Backdrops:
Connecting Literature and Primary Sources

Cover Image 	Title: Wee and the Wright Brothers Author: Timothy R. Gaffney Grade Level(s): ages 4-6; Kindergarten/1st Topic/Theme: Wright Brothers	Book Type: Picture book Setting and Time Period: Dayton, Ohio 1903 Subjects: Social Studies Summary: Wee is out looking for the adventure of a lifetime! The only problem is: he's a mouse. This story tells the adventure that Wee gets to take with the Wright brothers as they try out their airplane.
Primary Source Thumbnail	Caption Publication Information Book Notes	URL
	Title: Wright brothers aeroplane - patented plans Creator(s): N/A Date Created/Published: 1908 Book Notes: The four plans on how to build the airplane. Each one of these plans was drawn up by the brothers when trying to get the logistics down for how to fly.	http://www.loc.gov/pictures/item/2001695572/
	Title: Orville Wright with his airplane in Berlin, Germany, at Tempelhof Field Creator(s): N/A Date Created/Published: 1909 Book Notes: Orville Wright is with his airplane in Berlin, Germany to have other people look at it. He became very famous by sharing his thoughts and the work he has done.	http://www.loc.gov/pictures/item/93502726/

	Title: Machine [Wright Brothers airplane] on track, Big Kill Devil Hill Creator(s): N/A Date Created/Published: 1903 Dec. 14 Book Notes: Some men gather around the Wright airplane to see what the big news is about. These men were interested in how the Wrights had created a machine that could fly in the sky. The thought of flying over land was something new and interesting to people.	http://www.loc.gov/pictures/item/2004667786/
	Title: Orville Wright and Prof. Hugo Hergesell in Berlin Creator(s): N/A Date Created/Published: 1909 Book Notes: Orville spends time with higher educators in Berlin while teaching them a little about his plans and how he thinks he can succeed with the plan of flying. Because he was the first to think of the thought of flying, he sometimes needed to enlighten people on his thought process.	http://www.loc.gov/pictures/item/2002722092/
	Title: King Victor Enmanuel of Italy, camera in hand, with Orville Wright, Wilbur Wright and airplane Creator(s): N/A Date Created/Published: between 1900 and 1912 Book Notes: Orville and Wilbur were starting to become the talk of not only their town, but of the whole world. They quickly started finding out that everyone wanted their picture and to meet these two men who were famous for their higher level thinking of an airplane.	http://www.loc.gov/pictures/item/96509405/

Created by: Rachel Ferro
Last Updated: December 2012